TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading — The King of the world will raise us up to live again forever (2 Maccabees 7:1-2, 9-14).

Second Reading — May the Lord encourage and strengthen your hearts (2 Thes 2:16 — 3:5).

Gospel — Those who are deemed worthy of the coming age can no longer die (Luke 20:27-38 [27, 34-38]).

THE LORD STRENGTHENS US

If you drive past a health or fitness club early most mornings, you'll usually see a fair number of cars parked outside, most likely more cars than outside the parish church for morning Mass or morning prayer. When the apostle Paul speaks today of the word of the Lord "speed[ing] forward" he is making a racing allusion. This sort of reference is one of the most frequent in his letters. In his world, influenced by Greek culture, the city's gymnasium was a place for athletics, but also for poetry, philosophy, and religious and political discourse. It was a place for the body, mind, and spirit. All aspects of our life must be guided by the word of the Lord. In the same way, it will be the Lord's own strength we must use for our vocation as disciples: to speed the word of the Lord forward, so that Christ may be known and God glorified through our witness. Paul sums up by telling us what the heart of the disciple will be: directed at all times toward the love of God, and possessing the endurance of Christ.

Ale tí, čo sú uznaní za hodných tamtoho veku a zmŕtvychvstania, už sa neženia, ani nevydávajú. Už ani umrieť nemôžu, lebo sú ako anjeli a sú Božími synmi, pretože sú synmi vzkriesenia. (Lk 20, 35-36)

My nepatríme v tomto ohľade medzi saducejov, lebo veríme vo večný život. Teoreticky určite nie. Ale čo hovorí o tejto našej viere denná prax? Napríklad naše naviazanosti na osoby a veci? Náš nedostatočný, málo výrazný záujem o poklady, ktoré moľ nezoziera a hrdza nekazí? Čo hovorí o našej viere vo večný život náš smútok, ktorý sa objaví, keď sa nám nedostane ľudského uznania, pochvaly a potlesku, hoci vieme, že Otec odmieňa len to, čo sme vykonali kvôli nemu. A sko sa zhoduje s touto vierou náš strach z pribúdania a ubúdania rokov a strach z hlásiacich sa chorôb? Buďme úprimní a uznajme, že naša viera vo vzkriesenie tela a vo večný život nie je ešte tak veľmi ďaleko od saducejskej nevery.

WORLD YOUTH DAY 2011: FOCUS WILL BE ON PASTORAL CARE, NOT FESTIVITIES

Vatican officials joined with leaders of the Madrid archdiocese in an October 5 press conference in Rome to outline plans for the World Youth Day celebration that will be held in the Spanish city in August 2011. Cardinal Stanislaw Rylko, the president of the Pontifical Council for the Laity, told reporters that Pope Benedict has insisted "World Youth Day should not be reduced merely to a moment of festivity." Plans for the event will focus on the pastoral needs of the Church and the young people who attend, he said.

SAINT FRANCES XAVIER CABRINI (1850-1917)

Burly longshoremens glared at the woman in widow's dress who interrupted their drinking to beg money, in broken English, for her orphanage. The bar exploded in laughter as one man responded by spitting in her face. "That was for me," the woman smiled. "Do you have anything for the children?" Given today's national debate, could it be as much God's sense of humor as God's will for our sanctification that our first "American" saint should be an immigrant and naturalized citizen? Frances Cabrini, adopting the name "Xavier," confided to Pope Leo XIII her longing to follow her Jesuit patron to Asia. But the Pope replied, "Not East—West!" So she and her Missionary Sisters of the Sacred Heart exchanged exotic dreams of China for the impoverished reality of Italian ghettos across the United States and Central and South America. Before her death, Frances had founded seventy educational, health care, child, and family service institutions. Today, from Siberia to Ethiopia, in sixteen countries, Mother Cabrini's sisters and lay associates embody her practical spirituality: "Let's get to work! We'll have eternity to rest!"
